DETAILED ACTION

Current Status

1. This action is responsive to Applicants' amendment of 20 December 2007 and 8 February 2008.
2. Receipt and entry of Applicants' amendment is acknowledged.
3. Claims 1-27, 32, 36, 37, 69 and 77 are under active consideration in the application.
4. The 112 rejection of claims 32 and 37 is withdrawn following applicants amendments.

Applicants' arguments filed 20 December 2007 and 8 February 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because the specification, while being enabling for specifically treating breast cancer, prostate cancer, lung cancer, colorectal cancer, does not reasonably provide enablement for treating the diseases recited in 36 for the reason stated in the previous Office Action.

Claim Objection

Claim 36 is objected because the claim recites "colorectal skin". It is not clear if Applicants intend to write "colorectal, skin". Clarification is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1621

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schwan et al., {1-Alkenesulfinyl Chlorides: Synthesis, Characterization, and Some Substitution Reactions, Journal of Organic Chemistry (1998), 63(22), 7825-7832}.

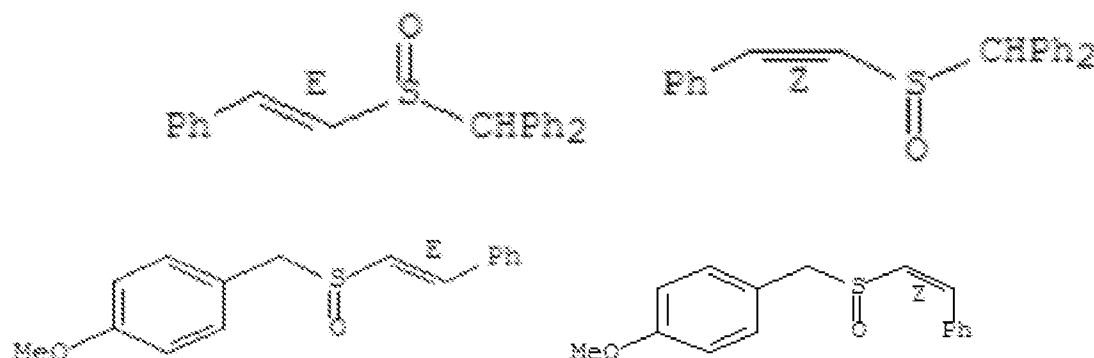

Applicants claim the compounds of the general formula 1; wherein all the variables are as defined in the claims.

formula 1

Determination of the scope and content of the prior art (M.P.E.P. §2141.01)

Schwan et al. teach the compounds as shown below. Also, see the compound in the abstract.

Ascertainment of the difference between the prior art and the claims (M.P.E.P..

§2141.02)

Applicants claimed the compound of the general formula 1 differs from the teaching of the prior art references in that the instantly claimed compound of the general formula 1 is a homolog of the prior arts compounds.

Finding of prima facie obviousness--rational and motivation (M.P.E.P.. §2142-

The instantly claimed compounds of the general formula 1 would have been suggested to one of ordinary skill because one of ordinary skill wishing to obtain the compounds of the general formula 1 is taught to select the compounds of Schwan et al.

One of ordinary skill in the art would have a reasonable expectation of success in practicing the instant invention by varying the position of the substituent (methyl group) on ring B of the general formula 1 to arrive at the instantly claimed compounds. Said person would have been motivated to practice the teaching of the reference cited because sulfoxides compounds are employed in making sulfoxide derivatives and a new family of sulfur acid derivatives. Additionally, the prior arts compounds are homologs of the claimed compounds of the general formula 1, and homologs are obvious. The instantly claimed invention would therefore have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Double Patenting

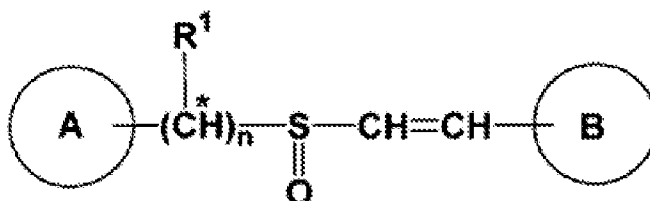

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

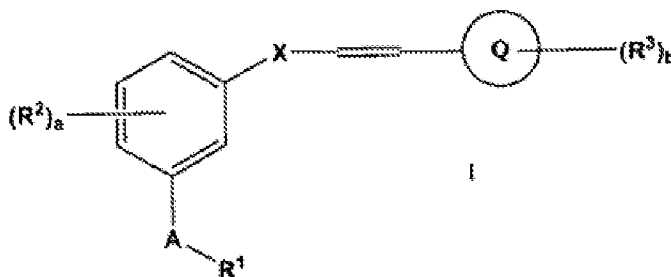

Claims 1-27, 32, 36, 37, 69 and 77 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6, 8, 94, 95, 97-117, 122, 128 and 130-132 of copending Application No. 10/592,604 in view of Singh et al. This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Applicants claim a diphenyl heterocycle compound and its pharmaceutical composition of formula 1, wherein the variable B is heteroaryl and the other variables are as defined in the claims while the copending Application No. 10/592,604 teaches the compound shown below and its pharmaceutical acceptable salt; wherein the variables are defined in the claims. See claims 1-6, 8, 94, 95, 97-117, 122, 128 and 130-132.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the scope of the claims overlaps substantially with the scope of claims 1-6, 8, 94, 95, 97-117, 122, 128 and 130-132 of the copending Application No. 10/592,604, and the genus of the copending Application No. 10/592,604 encompasses the species in the presently claim invention; wherein the variable X in the copending Application No. 10/592,604 is -CHRY- and Y is S=O. The difference is not a patentable distinction because the copending Application No. 10/592,604 teaches the elements of the claimed invention with sufficient guidance, particularity, and with a reasonable expectation of success, that the invention would be prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.
